SIR,

In forwarding herewith a copy of this office order No. 249 of 1932-33 dated 12/14th June 1933 accepting Nos. 246 and 247 of Hura village, Nanjangud taluk, measuring 11 acres 31 guntas offered by Mr. K. P. Nanjundaiah, Sub Postmaster, Jayalli, as an endowment for the Sri Srikanteswaraswamy temple at Nanjangud, I have the honor to state that the lands in question are entered as Brahmadaya inams. As the lands have been now accepted as an endowment in favour of the Sri Srikanteswaraswami temple at Nanjangud and the Khate thereof made in the name of the deity it seems to be advantageous to change the tenure and treat the lands as Devadaya. The Superintendent, Revenue Survey who was consulted in the matter has stated that the inam may be converted from personal to Devadaya with the approval of Government (vide copy of his letter enclosed). I request that orders of Government may kindly be obtained for the conversion of the inam as Devadaya.

2. The connected vernacular papers are enclosed for reference and return.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Hiriannaiya

Order No. 911/32-33 Bangalore dated 12th June 1933.

It is reported that Mr. K. T. Nanjundiah holds the above lands as Personal inam and that they are free from encumbrance. The lands are stated to be lying fallow at present but there is an offer of Rs 30/- per annum as gutta from 1933-34. Mr. Nanjundiah has offered the lands as an endowment for the performance of the marginally noted sevas out of the annual income. The Survey Superintendent who was consulted in the matter states that the lands in question are enfranchised Brahmadaya inams and that there is no objection to their being accepted as endowment.

2.	do.	" Hirithirunal Rathotsava Day.
3.	do.	" Kirithirunal Rathotsava Day.

2. In the circumstances stated above the lands offered are accepted as endowment.

3. The Deputy Commissioner is requested to take necessary further action for the khate of the lands being transferred to the name of the deity and have the necessary bonds executed by the donor. He is further requested to issue suitable instructions to the local officers for leasing the lands to the best advantage of the temple and arrange for the regular conduct of the sevas.

Separate orders will issue regarding the conversion of the lands to Devadava inam.
